auxiliary of the national branch of the Women's Home Missionary Society, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, reached a crisis when sait for $50,000 damages against the bishop was filed by Mrs. Cope late to-day.

The suit follows recent charges made against Bishop Moore to the conterence of bishops by Mrs. Cope, alleging that Bishop Moore has libelied her in a letter on the subject of a bequest of $10,000 left to the Women's Home Missionary Society, by Mrs. Fannie Murray, of Atchison county, Kan.

Kan.

The letter to which Mrs. Cope objected was addressed to an official of the Women's Home Missionary Society. It was dated Abliene, Kan., March 18, 1911, and read in part:

"It is Friday and Mrs. Cope has not appeared. I think you will never see a cent of the bequest, and a dangerous precedent will be established unless you energetically sustain the Kansas conference in pushing the matter to a cent of the bequest, and a dangerous precedent will be established unless you energetically sustain the Kansas you energetically sustain the Kansas conference in pushing the matter to a legal conclusion.

"What complicates the situation is the fact that Mrs. Cope holds official relations to your society—is appointed to some function of your society. Thus she is enabled to pose as an official.

"Mr. Jackson, while seeming to act for her, has set on the heirs to bring suit for the property. You are juggled, tricked and beaten.

"Bincerely yours.

"DAVID H. MOORE."

Mrs. Fannle Murray, of Atchison county, several years ago, made a bequest of property valued at $20,000 making out a deed to H. M. Jackson, an Atchison county attorney. Upon her death the deed provided that half of the property should go to the Women's Foreign Missionary Society and the other half was to go to the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Kansas Conference of the Methodist Church."

There was no such society as the latter, Later, Mrs. Cope and others are said to have incorporated a society named in accordance with the terms of Mrs. Murray's bequest, and Mr. Jackson is said to have paid this society $4,500 of the $10,009 permanent fund.
